In fiscal 2012-2013, the Temple University Press board met nine times. The Board approved 12 advance contracts and 13 full contracts during this time. The Board granted final approval to 20 projects. No projects were rejected during this time. The faculty board of review welcomed two new members during this year, Priya Joshi (English) and David Waldstreicher (History). Two board members, Mike Leeds (Economics) and JoAnne Epps (Law) completed their terms at the end of AY 2013.

TUP publishes book projects in a wide array of academic disciplines and fields including Asian American Studies, Political Science, Ethnomusicology, Sports, Sociology, Urban Studies, Gender and Women’s Studies, Disability Studies, Global Youth, History, Criminology, American Studies, Environmental Studies, Higher Education, and Regional Trade. The Press also maintains a small trade list, most of which focuses on the Philadelphia region.