

JOSEPH R. BELTLEY SCHOLARSHIP

2010-2011 NOMINATION FORM

The Joseph R. Beltley Scholarship was created in 2001 by Mrs. Elizabeth Beltley in memory of her son. Joseph graduated from Temple Ambler with a degree in psychology and went on to work with abused children at St. Mary's parish in Ambler. Mrs. Beltley created the scholarship to assist psychology majors at Temple University Ambler who have distinguished themselves by outstanding participation in community services.

To make application for one of these awards please describe your community service, including the type of service and the amount of time devoted. Both high school and college years may be included. The winners of the awards will be decided by a committee, headed by Mr. Richard Burke in Academic Advising. Students who receive minimal state or federal funding will be favored.

It is intended that the award will be announced in Spring 2010. Enclosed is a form for the description of your community service. All current enrolled Ambler Psychology majors are eligible.
