

Mary Wald Banking and Finance Scholarship Form
Temple University
Fox School of Business and Management
2010-2011

Objective:

The objective of this fund is to provide a monetary award to a Temple University student who has made an outstanding contribution to one of the Fox School of Business and Management student organizations at Temple University Ambler during the school year in which the award is made.

Provisions:

Recipients must be active members of one of the Fox School of Business and Management student organizations at Temple University Ambler, have made an outstanding contribution to that organization (e.g. recruited new members, obtained speakers, coordinated and run special events, raised funds for an organization or charity) and have a minimum GPA of 2.75.

Candidates for the award may be self nominated, nominated by a student organization advisor or by another student organization member. The selection committee shall be composed of one representative from the Temple University Ambler Office of Student Life, one representative from the Fox School of Business and Management Ambler office, and the advisors to the Ambler student business organizations.

Name of Nominee: _____

Address: _____

Telephone number: _____

E-Mail: _____

GPA: _____

On a separate sheet of paper, in essay form, please state why you deserve this award.**

Send this completed nomination form along with your essay to the following office by March 17, 2010.

Kate Rickards
Assistant Director, Enrollment Management
Fox School of Business and Management
Temple University Ambler
580 Meetinghouse Road
Ambler, PA 19002
267-468-8366
kathleen.rickards@temple.edu
ICQ# 9899797

