What’s the Beethoven Project?

The Beethoven Project: A collaboration between Philadelphia’s acclaimed Jasper Quartet and Temple Music Prep's Center for Gifted Young Musicians. The Jasper Quartet's residency at Temple Prep has inspired a concert of Beethoven String Quartets to be performed as a fund raiser for Philabundance to help with their fight against hunger and malnutrition in the Delaware Valley. Two advanced groups from the "Center for Gifted Young Musicians" will perform Beethoven's Quartet in D major, op. 18 #3 and Quartet in e minor, Op. 59 #2. The concert will conclude with a performance of Beethoven's incredible Quartet in F major, Op. 135 performed by the Jasper Quartet.

Temple Music Prep’s "Center for Gifted Young Musicians" is designed specifically for the training of young instrumentalists who demonstrate great potential for musical achievement. Established in 1986, the Center's string program focuses on the development of superior musical skills in ensemble performance. Instruction is provided by the finest artist/teachers in the region, including members of the Philadelphia Orchestra and Professors from Temple University's Boyer College of Music and Dance.

The Jasper String Quartet
Winners of the prestigious CMA Cleveland Quartet Award, Philadelphia’s Jasper String Quartet is at the forefront of a golden age in American chamber music. The Jaspers have been hailed as “sonically delightful and expressively compelling” (The Strad) and "powerful" (New York Times). "The Jaspers... match their sounds perfectly, as if each swelling chord were coming out of a single, impossibly well-tuned organ, instead of four distinct instruments." (New Haven Advocate)
The Jasper String Quartet is the Professional Quartet in Residence at Temple University's Center for Gifted Young Musicians. They record exclusively for Sono Luminus.

Philabundance was created in 1984 with the simple belief that no man, woman or child should go hungry. We seek to drive hunger from our communities today and end hunger forever.
