

Request for Advanced Standing Credits

33 credits maximum for Ph.D.

NOTE: You must complete this form for the Department and a separate form that is available on the Graduate School website for official approval.

Please place each graduate level course that you wish to be considered for credit under the category which best suits it. After the title of the course write a brief description of the content. Add the number of credits received and the semester/year in which you took the course. Fill out a separate sheet for each graduate level program in which you participated. (Identify the program at the top of the page.) If you need more space, duplicate this form on your computer.

Cultural studies (dance history, dance cultures, etc.)

Professional applications (teaching dance, applied practice, arts advocacy, dance & technology, etc.)

Dance processes (dance science & somatics, dance as healing, behavioral study of dance and dance community processes)

Dance research (methods of inquiry into dance, philosophical inquiry, movement analysis etc.)

Dance as a fine or performing art (dance composition, choreography, technique, repertory, performance)