TEMPLE UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

All alumni are automatically granted life membership in the Temple University Alumni Association (TUAA). Founded in 1927 and incorporated in 1997, the TUAA represents all 250,000 living alumni of Temple University and is the umbrella organization for the 17 school and college alumni associations and alumni shared interest groups, such as the Temple University Young Alumni (TUYA), the Temple University Black Alumni Alliance (TUBAA), the Temple University LGBT Alumni (TULGBT), and the Temple University Student Alumni Association (TUSAA).

The TUAA also has Temple alumni clubs in eight cities across the country. These include Atlanta, Boston, Los Angeles, New York, Phoenix, San Francisco, Seattle and Washington, D.C.

The Temple University Young Alumni (TUYA) is an organization within the university taking a proactive role in helping to establish a real sense of community among alumni who have graduated within the last 10 years. The TUYA works to provide networking opportunities through social and civic activities in partnership with the Temple University Alumni Association.
