GRAMMY Nominee Karrin Allyson to perform with TU Jazz Band on December 1

Three-time GRAMMY nominee, Karrin Allyson, will perform with the TU Jazz Band, under the direction of Terell Stafford, at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, December 1 at 7:30 PM. Karrin will receive the 2009 Temple University Jazz Masters Hall of Fame Award. Past awardees include Jimmy Heath, Clark Terry, Jon Faddis and Joe Wilder.

A versatile artist, Karrin has recorded 11 CDs for Concord Records, each of which have showcased her astonishing breadth of repertoire, from standards by Gershwin and Porter to Brazilian bossa nova, samba and the blues.

Karrin has performed at jazz venues throughout the world, and at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center and the 92nd St. Y. She has also been a popular guest on NPR's A Prairie Home Companion.

Also on the program will be the TU Lab Band under the direction of Greg Kettinger and Temple University Jazz III, with Dan Monaghan as Director.

Tickets range from $35-45 for general admission. $10 for students with TUID. Call Kimmel Center Box Office, 215.893.1999 or www.kimmelcenter.org.
