

fourth stream...La Banda
TEMPLE UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA'S NEWEST CD AND DIGITAL RELEASE

September 15, 2010

Temple University Symphony Orchestra's recording of fourth stream...La Banda, commissioned by the Boyer College of Music and Dance and composed by Grammy winner and former Boyer faculty member, Bill Cunliffe, is available for purchase at CD Baby or as a digital download. Amazon, iTunes and other major distributors.

This performance features Luis Biava conducting, Terell Stafford as soloist, jazz students, jazz alumni and the full student orchestra. View the complete orchestra roster.

The CD was recorded in April 2010 at the Baptist Temple, engineered by multi-Grammy winner Al Schmitt and mixed at Capitol Records in Hollywood, CA.

fourth stream...La Banda was performed by the TUSO at sold-out concerts at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts and Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Center.