

Charles "Jason" Bechtold is currently the Manager of Choral Activities at Temple University's Boyer College of Music and Dance, where he received his B.S. degree in Music studying most aspects of music composition, theory, conducting, and music administration. As a composer of choir music, Mr. Bechtold's music consists mostly of secular choral songs that soar with beautiful, memorable melodic lines and display a grand sense of emotional character. He currently has 21 pieces of music published through Really Good Music, Llc. and has had many successful performances. You can find out more about Mr. Bechtold at www.reallygoodmusic.com.
