Welcome 2004 PCCD Crime Prevention Conference Attendees

Dear Conference Participant,

On behalf of Governor Ed Rendell and the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2004 PCCD Crime Prevention Conference.

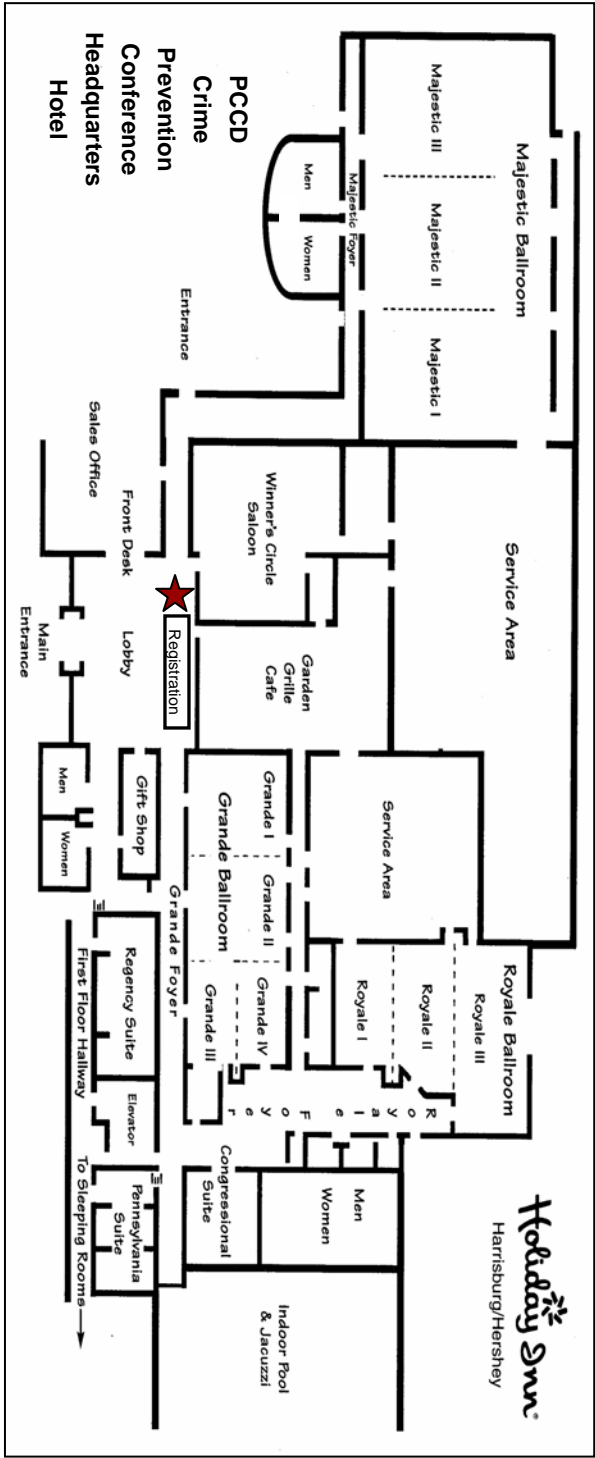

This year's conference, facilitated by Temple University's Criminal Justice Training Programs, will provide you with opportunities to learn more about the latest issues in crime prevention and share your knowledge and experiences with your peers. Our workshops will provide both timely and useful information that you can take back to the communities you serve.

You will hear from a number of distinguished speakers about such topics as Internet security, ID fraud, trends in drug use, new laws for dealing with hate crimes, and the benefits of involving citizens in crime prevention efforts. You will also receive an update on Pennsylvania's Terrorism Awareness and Prevention program, which is being used as a model in other states across the nation.

I hope you will enjoy this unique training and networking opportunity. Thank you for your interest and participation and I look forward to seeing you.

Walter M. Phillips, Jr., Esq.,

Chairman, Pennsylvania Commission on
Crime and Delinquency

General Information

•Conference Headquarters

The hotel offers a number of amenities to conference attendees staying overnight at the Holiday Inn. Guest Services include:

- Two restaurants
- Fully equipped health club with sauna and Jacuzzi
- Coffee makers and hairdryers
- Indoor and outdoor pools
- "Winners Circle" Lounge
- Ample complimentary parking

For those attendees who may want to take advantage of the scenic Capital and Lancaster areas, arrangements have been made to honor the special conference room rate for the day immediately following the conference.

•Conference Registration

The $30.00 registration fee includes attendance to all sessions and workshops of your choice, refreshments at scheduled breaks, and luncheon on Thursday, December 16. The fee also includes a continental breakfast on Thursday and Friday mornings in the Royale Foyer.

•Conference Badges

Registrants must wear their conference badge at all scheduled events, since attendance is limited to badge holders. Should you lose your badge, check with the Conference Registration Desk for a replacement.

•Area Guides and Information

Booklets and guides, listing area restaurants, shopping malls, places of interest along with available discounts for conference attendees are available in the registration/lobby area. Local attractions include Hershey Park, Factory Outlet stores, the Penn National Race Track, Lancaster's Pennsylvania Dutch and Amish attractions, and the State Capitol Complex.

•Conference Commemorative Coin

A second special commemorative coin has been minted to commemorate the 2004 PCCD Crime Prevention Conference. Each conference registrant will receive a 2004 coin with their registration packet. Law enforcement-related commemorative coins have become a much-desired collector's item. Additional 2003 and 2004 coins may be purchased at the Conference Registration Desk.
