

NOMINATION FORM

Award for Outstanding Teaching by a Graduate Student

Student Nominee Name: _____

Temple University ID#: _____

Department: _____

Advisor: _____

Criteria for Outstanding Teaching

Although diverse talents and classroom styles enhance teaching, outstanding teachers in any field are those who consistently and exceptionally accomplish the following:

- Demonstrate a command of the subject
- Prepare their presentations and assignments carefully
- Are clear and rigorous in their presentations
- Clearly define their expectations and basis for grading
- Challenge students intellectually
- Provide prompt and full feedback to students on their progress
- Encourage, motivate and inspire students to do their best work

Instructions

Those making nominations (including self-nominations) should submit this form along with a letter of nomination no later than Monday, April 25, 2011.

Nominees will be notified of the requirements for submitting a full dossier for review. The deadline for submitting these supporting materials is Monday, May 23, 2011.

Supporting materials need to include (but are not limited to) the following:

- The nominee's curriculum vitae.
- Sample course materials.
- Student evaluations.
- Reports on classroom visits.
- Supporting statements from at least two faculty members.
- Letters of support from current students.
- A separate biographical paragraph, written by an advisor or faculty member, which describes the nominee's achievements, and which will be published in the College's Awards Ceremony program if the nominee wins the award.

Please return this form and the letter of nomination to:
Graduate Services, 400 Carnell Hall
(Digital Packets are also acceptable to eileen.weinberg@temple.edu)

Please return your nominations no later than Monday, April 25, 2011.

Full dossiers of nominees are due no later than Monday, May 23, 2011.