

For today's students....for tomorrow's educator...
for the College of Education every day.

When you support the College of Education, you enable the college to provide essential resources, advanced technology, dynamic faculty and scholarship opportunities to the next generation of educators, researchers, and professionals. Your gift, no matter the size, makes an impact every day and shows your confidence in the college's ability to prepare and develop tomorrow's leaders.
