SECTION 4: STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

With my signature in Section 5, I herewith acknowledge my understanding that:

- If I receive permission to participate in Temple University commencement ceremonies without my having completed one or more of the requirements needed to graduate, I will NOT officially graduate until I successfully complete all outstanding requirements.
- Based on the deadlines set by my school or college, I must submit a graduation application for the upcoming term in which I will have successfully completed all outstanding requirements. Further, my graduation date will correspond to that upcoming term for which I have applied for graduation and will NOT be retroactive.
- It is my responsibility to inform my employer that I have not graduated if my employment is contingent upon receipt of my degree.
- If approved to attend my school or college graduation ceremony prior to my transcribed date of graduation, I forfeit my right to attend a future school or college graduation ceremony when my degree requirements are completed.
- My name may not appear in either the University or school/college commencement books.
- I will NOT receive a diploma until all outstanding requirements are successfully completed.
