

The Summer Research Opportunities Program (SROP) sponsored by the Temple University Graduate School is a 10-week research-intensive experience for underrepresented undergraduate students in the Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences (SBES). SROP participants work on a full-time research project while exploring opportunities for graduate study and academic careers. It is anticipated that SROP participants plan to pursue the Ph.D. degree in an SBES discipline. To apply, complete the following information and submit this form along with the required supporting documentation to the Graduate School:
