

Temple University Diversity Dialogues Series

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 2007 @ 6:30 PM
MCGONIGLE HALL

Join 200 students in the Temple Unity Circle!

“When a group of people who are of common mind and purpose come together and harmonize with each other through song, music and percussion, they create a synergized force that solidifies the group vision and purpose. Village Music Circles is dedicated to making this happen by using drumming as a tool to create unity.”

—Arthur Hull

Program facilitated by Village Music Circles:
Facilitating Human Potential through Rhythm
www.drumcircle.com/

*Building Unity
in the Temple
Community*
Harmonizing through Music, Song, and Percussion!

Student Organization with the Largest Number of Members Attending
Receives $100 in Diamond Dollars

Groups Must Register via e-mail to Tchet@temple.edu

SPONSORED BY THE OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS, TEMPLE STUDENT GOVERNMENT DIVERSITY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AND THE MULTICULTURAL STUDENT UNION.

Maintaining our Commitment to being the Diversity University