of Multicultural Affairs
Eastern Regional Chapter

FIRST ANNUAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
RETREAT

July 16-18, 2008

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

PALOMA is the Pennsylvania Association of Liaisons and Officers of Multicultural Affairs (paloma represents the dove in Spanish, reflecting a symbol of peace). PALOMA is a network of multicultural affairs professionals in higher education within the state of Pennsylvania that provides support, advocacy, exchanges best practices in the field, provides joint programming collaborates and engages in research, assessment and continual renewal.

In July of 2005, multicultural affairs professionals in the Philadelphia area hosted the last statewide conference of PALOMA. Beginning in March of 2007, several representatives from higher education institutions in the Philadelphia area began to meet on a monthly basis and subsequently formed the Eastern Regional Chapter of PALOMA. We continue to seek the support and partnership of all colleges and universities throughout the region to forge a strong alliance.

Participating institutions in PALOMA East have included:

Arcadia University
Cabrini College
Community College of Philadelphia
Drexel University
Eastern University
Haverford College
Kutztown University
La Salle University
Montgomery County Community College
Saint Joseph's University
Temple University
University of Pennsylvania
Ursinus University
Villanova University
West Chester University
Widener University

In order to enhance our skills, extend our knowledge and solidify our network, PALOMA East is organizing its First Annual Professional Development Retreat. The Retreat will allow members to:

- Gain advance knowledge in key areas related to the field
- Develop techniques, procedures and strategies that focus on tangible institutional needs
- Network with colleagues to develop extensive support systems and collaborations
- Exchange ideas on best practices in the field

This retreat that is intended for professionals in multicultural affairs and key members of our campus communities who have a solid understanding of the most pertinent issues in the field.
