The 3-week program is geared toward working professionals who come from, or aspire to excel in, non-profit, Women’s Federation Organization (WFO) settings. The program provides a pathway for such professionals to apply a level of skills and expertise to successfully manage and develop organizations that provide optimum delivery of service.

PROGRAM BENEFIT:
The program will be held at the Temple University Harrisburg campus. Mornings will be spent in the classroom learning content on the daily topic area. Afternoons will include visiting related organizations, discussing topics with leaders of nonprofits and WFOs, along with visits to historical and cultural sites.

PROGRAM FEATURES:
- Curriculum includes management and planning in non-profits and WFOs, facilitation in community development, program evaluation, leadership theories and ethical issues in management.
- Tour non-profit and WFOs and meet with their leaders.
- All domestic travel, room and board expenses included.

GROUP SIZE: 15 people and up
