

WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY LEWIS GORDON, LAURA H. CARNELL PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY AND DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY OF RACE AND SOCIAL THOUGHT

DR. LIVIO SANSONE PRESENTS

Melville Herskovits versus Franklin Frazier and the making of the American black family in Bahia:
on the transnational nature of Afro-Brazilian studies

Friday, February 24th
11:30 AM—1:30 PM
Anderson 1221

 TEMPLE UNIVERSITY
The Institute for the Study of Race and Social Thought

The College of Liberal Arts

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT ISRST@TEMPLE.EDU
OR GO TO WWW.TEMPLE.EDU/ISRST

Sponsors include ISRST and CAJS, Spanish and Portuguese Studies, Religion, Sociology, Anthropology, and Political Science at Temple University, and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts