Visa Sponsorship

Non-immigrant Visa Sponsorship Provided by Temple University
Temple University can sponsor individuals in the following classifications. The department must support the visa classification and the individual must meet the eligibility requirements.

H-1B Specialty Occupations
The applicant must be fully funded by the University. Applicant must have the minimum of a bachelor’s degree. The maximum amount of time permitted in H-1B status is six years with an exception for certain individuals who applied for US Permanent Residence. H-1B Status has Dual Intent. Visit our website at www.temple.edu/iss/academic/international/temporary-employees.html for more information.

J-1 Exchange Visitor
According to the Department of State (DOS), the purpose of the J-1 Exchange Program is to increase mutual understanding between the people of the US and the people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchanges. The exchange of visiting scholars promotes interchange of knowledge and skills, mutual enrichment, and stronger links between research and educational institutions in US and foreign countries.

Temple University sponsors Exchange Visitors who will engage in research/teach in the following categories: Professor, Research Scholar, Short Term Scholar and J-1 Student Intern. The length of the J-1 Exchange Program will depend upon the category for which a Form DS-2019 is issued. For more details, visit www.temple.edu/iss/academic/exchange-visitor-scholars.html

E-3 Certain Specialty Occupation Professionals from Australia.
Individual is a citizen of Australia. The applicant must be fully funded by the University. Applicant must have the minimum of a bachelor’s degree. The initial E-3 petition may be approved for 2 years depending upon the job offer. Extensions may be requested for up to 2 years depending upon the job offer. E-3 does not offer Dual Intent. More information on E-3 status can be found at www.temple.edu/iss/academic/E-3AustralianSpecialtyOccupationWorkers.html
