

Patricia Deitch (Patti) has been the President and CEO of Delaware Valley Community Health, Inc for over fifteen years. Formerly a hospital social worker, she earned an MBA in Health Administration from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA in 1985 and spent 8 years in hospital administration at Cooper Hospital in Camden, NJ and Medical College of Pennsylvania and, immediately prior to moving into community health, was an Assistant Vice President at Allegheny Health Systems.

Patti is a Diplomate of the American College of Healthcare Executives and is on the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Association of Community Health Centers as the Chair of the Legislative Committee. She also participates nationally as a member of the Health Policy and Legislative Committees of the National Association of Community Health Centers. Other Board memberships include the Health Federation of Philadelphia (Chair), The Institute for Safe Families, and former Co-Chair of the Consortium for Latino Health in Philadelphia.