

Improving Health Care for Children Covered by Medical Assistance

Focused on Spanish, Vietnamese and Chinese speaking families in Philadelphia

An overview of problems and a look at solutions for families with limited English Proficiency

October 26, 2004

2:30-5:30PM

The United Way Building
7 Benjamin Franklin Parkway
(17th and the Parkway)

Speakers include:

Dr. Noel Rosales – Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia

Sally King – St. Christopher’s Hospital for Children

Roberto Evans – Temple University Children’s Medical Center

Dr. Barbara Gold – a private pediatrician

Carol Quick – PA Department of Public Welfare

Refreshments will be provided

To RSVP or for more information, please contact Alisa Simon at alisasimon@pccy.org

Presented By Philadelphia Citizens for Children and Youth (PCCY)

Part of the Covering Kids and Families Access Initiative (CKF-AI)

Funded by The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation