

GRANDMA'S KIDS

KINSHIP SUPPORT PROGRAM

(A Program of the Temple University Center for Intergenerational Learning)

Grandma's Kids provides a free after-school program for children who are not living with their biological parent(s) (kinship care, foster care or group home). The program operates at Blankenburg, Blaine, Harrison, and McKinley Elementary Schools. Caregivers are provided support and resources.

Services include:

- * Homework Help
- * Tutoring
- * Life Skills Training
- * Group Counseling (Rap Sessions)
- * Free Cultural and Recreational Events
- * Resource and Referrals
- * Workshops for Caregivers
- * Support Coordination

Grandma's Kids Kinship Support Program!

Monday - Friday,
3:15 pm - 5:30 pm!

Registration is OPEN!

For more information about Grandma's Kids, please call:

Sannah Ragsdale, Project Coordinator (215) 204-3105

Si necesita asistencia en español, Lilly Lugo (215)-204-3554.

