

Now Available from the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL) in collaboration with the Mid-Atlantic Regional Educational Laboratory for Student Success (LSS)...

SAFE AND SOUND: AN EDUCATIONAL LEADER'S GUIDE TO EVIDENCE-BASED SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING (SEL) PROGRAMS

To order, call: 1-800-892-5550, ask for Tina Caldwell, Coordinator of Information Services at LSS. To place an order from outside the U.S., e-mail Tina Caldwell at: terracina.caldwell@temple.edu.

Why This Guide?

To help educational leaders understand the importance of social and emotional learning (SEL) for students' school and life success. Also to promote informed decisions about evidence-based SEL programs in schools

What You Will Find in the Guide

Descriptions, contact information, and "consumer reports"-type ratings for 80 nationally available, multi-year programs so educators can compare programs and select the strongest programs for their schools

Plus:

- Background, theory, and scientific basis for effective social and emotional learning (SEL) programs, including the fundamental connection of SEL to academic learning.
- Steps for planning and implementing effective school-wide and district-wide SEL programming.
- Description of the methodology of the CASEL program review (rating procedures for 80 programs according to CASEL's framework for effective programming).
- A listing of "Select SEL" programs found to be especially effective and comprehensive in their training and SEL coverage.
- A CD-ROM with a variety of supplemental resources including a PowerPoint presentation and a video from The George Lucas Educational Foundation.

How To Obtain the Guide

- For PRINTED COPIES of the guide, contact the Laboratory for Student Success at: (800) 892-5550. For orders placed outside of the U.S., e-mail Tina Caldwell at: terracina.caldwell@temple.edu
- For an ELECTRONIC COPY of the guide, visit the CASEL web site at: www.CASEL.org.