

Roselyn Y. Hsueh
Center for International Studies
University of Southern California

roselyn.hsueh@gmail.com
rhsueh@usc.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Dept. of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, May, 2008.

Dissertation: "China's New Regulatory State: A Bifurcated Strategy Toward Foreign Investment"

Nominated by department for APSA Gabriel Almond Award for Best Dissertation in Comparative Politics

Subfields: Comparative Politics (Political Economy and China/ Asia), International Relations, and Research Methods

M.A., Dept. of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, December, 2001.

Masters Thesis: "The Significant Role of Patron-Client Relationships in Development"

Readers: David K. Leonard, Kevin J. O'Brien, and Pradeep Chhibber

B.A. with Honors, Dept. of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, May, 1999.

Senior Honors Thesis: "Mobilization of Civil Society in Taiwan's Path to Democratization"

Advisor: M. Steven Fish

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Hayward R. Alker Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for International Studies, with Research Affiliation with the U.S.-China Institute, University of Southern California, 2008-2009.
Assistant Professor of Political Science, Temple University, starting September 2009.

PUBLICATIONS

Forthcoming. "China's Bifurcated Approach to Market Liberalization: A Sectoral Perspective," chapter to be included in volume edited by Joseph Stiglitz.

2008. Book Review, Yuezhi Zhao, Communication in China: Political Economy, Power, and Conflict (Rowman & Littlefield Publishers, Inc. 2008), in Journal of Chinese Political Science 13:3.

2005. "Who Rules the International Economy? Taiwan's Daunting Attempts at Bilateralism," in Bilateral Trade Arrangements in the Asia Pacific: Origins, Evolution and Implication, edited by Vinod Aggarwal and Shujiro Urata. New York, Routledge.

2004. "Mobilization of Civil Society in Taiwan's Path to Democratization," DSC Conference Acquisitions of the British Library. Wetherby, U.K.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- “Lessons from China and India: National Models of Sectoral Integration into the International Economy,” paper submitted to the “FDI and Development” panel at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association (ISA), New York, February 17, 2009.
- “China and India: Variation in the Reregulation of Foreign Direct Investment in the Age of Globalization,” paper submitted to the “Politics of Foreign Direct Investment” panel at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association (ISA), New York, February 17, 2009.
- “Crossing the River By Feeling for the Stones: Conducting Research in Varying Contexts in China,” paper delivered on co-organized panel, “The Nuts and Bolts of Challenging Fieldwork,” at Annual Meeting of American Political Science Association (APSA), Boston, August 28-31, 2008.
- “China’s Liberalization Two-Step: A Response to Globalization,” paper delivered at Annual Meeting of Initiative for Policy Dialogue Task Force on China, Columbia University, at the University of Manchester, June 25-26, 2008.
- Participation in Advanced Graduate Workshop on Poverty, Development and Globalization, Columbia University’s Initiative for Policy Dialogue (IPD) and University of Manchester’s Brooks World Poverty Institute (BWPI), June 15-July 4, 2008.
- “Who Wins?: China Wires Africa,” co-authored paper accepted for delivery at Annual Meeting of International Studies Association, San Francisco, March 26-March 29, 2008.
- “The Chinese State and Foreign Capital: Who Controls Whom,” paper delivered on author organized panel, “Globalization Reexamined: The State and FDI in Comparative Perspective,” at Annual Meeting of American Political Science Association (APSA), Chicago, August 30, 2007.
- “The Chinese State and Foreign Capital: Who Controls Whom” paper presented on “The Politics of Liberalization” panel at Annual Meeting of Midwest Political Science Association (MPSA), April 15, 2007.
- “Who Rules the International Economy? Taiwan’s daunting attempts at bilateralism,” paper presented at workshop for Bilateral Trade Arrangements in the Asia Pacific: Origins, Evolution and Implication, East-West Center, Honolulu, Hawaii, December, 2003.
- “Mobilization of Civil Society in Taiwan’s Path to Democratization: The Case of the Taiwanese Presbyterian Church,” paper presented at the North American Taiwan Studies Conference, Harvard University, June 16-19, 2000.

COMMITTED PROJECTS

- “Who Wins?: China Wires Africa,” co-authored paper in progress.
- “China and Japan Compared: Telecommunications Liberalization and Foreign Capital,” co-authored article in progress.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Hayward R. Alker Post-Doctoral Fellowship, University of Southern California, 2008-2009
University Multiyear Graduate Opportunity Program Fellowship, U.C. Berkeley, 2000-2008
IEAS Graduate Fellowship, Institute of East Asian Studies, U.C. Berkeley, 2007

National Security Education Program David L. Boren Graduate Fellowship, 2006-2007
Fulbright IIE Fellowship, Department of State, U.S. Government, 2005-2006
IEAS Graduate Fellowship, Institute of East Asian Studies, U.C. Berkeley, 2005
Pacific Rim Research Program Grant, Office of the President University of California, 2005
Graduate Division Summer Grant, U.C. Berkeley, 2001
National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowship, Honorable Mention, 2001
California Alumni Scholarship, U.C. Berkeley, 1995-1999
Senator, Associated Students of the University of California (ASUC), 1996-1997
Student Representative, Academic Senate Library Committee, U.C. Berkeley, 1996-1997

LECTURES, SEMINARS, AND WORKSHOPS

“Doing Fieldwork in Challenging Contexts,” Professional Development Workshop, Dept. of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, March 17, 2009.
“Conducting In-depth Fieldwork: Lessons from the Field,” lecture given in IR 211 International Relations, Approaches to Research, University of Southern California, October 28, 2008.
Discussant for Kwei-bo Huang (Visiting Fulbright Scholar, The Johns Hopkins University), “Looking at East Asian Conflict Management Through the Lens of the Taiwan Strait,” Center for International Studies, University of Southern California, November 11, 2008.
“How China Grows: China’s Distinctive Integration into the International Economy,” lecture in PS139B Political Economy of Development and Underdevelopment, June 12, 2008.
“Doing Fieldwork in Challenging Contexts,” a Professional Development Workshop, Dept. of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, initiated for and delivered on March 14, 2008.
“The Chinese State and Foreign Capital: Who Controls Whom,” paper delivered at invitation of Institute for International Studies IR Colloquium Series, U.C. Berkeley, Oct. 11, 2007.
Discussant for Heiner Schulz (University of Pennsylvania), “Political Institutions and Foreign Direct Investment in Developing Countries: Does the Sector Matter?,” Institute for International Studies IR Colloquium Series, U.C. Berkeley, Oct. 10, 2007.
“The Chinese State and the Market: ‘Socialism with Chinese Characteristics’ or a Variety of Capitalism,” lecture in PS 138E Varieties of Capitalism: The Political-Economic Systems of the World, U.C. Berkeley, April 24, 2007.
“The Significant Role of Patron-client Relationships in Development in Comparative Perspective: The Case of Taiwan,” workshops given at Ambassador’s Program Conference, Formosa Foundation, Los Angeles, California, Summer 2003 and Summer 2004.
“Taiwanese Politics in Historical and Comparative Perspective,” lecture in PS 143C Chinese Politics & Society, U.C. Berkeley, Spring 2003.

WORK AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Fulbright Visiting Scholar, Institute of World Economics and Politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, Beijing, China, 2005-2006.
Graduate Student Researcher for Professor Harold Wilensky, Department of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley, Fall 2004, Fall 2006, Spring 2007 to Spring 2008.
Graduate Student Researcher for Professor T.J. Pempel, Institute of East Asian Studies, U.C. Berkeley, Summer and Fall 2004.
Editor of Publications, Center for Latin American Studies, U.C. Berkeley, 2001-2002.

Research Assistant for Professor Larry Diamond, Hoover Institute, Stanford University, 2000.
Editorial Page Assistant and Reporter, Taipei Times, Taipei, Taiwan, 2000.
Research Analyst, California Judicial Council, San Francisco, 1998-1999.
Research Apprentice for Professor David Kirp, Richard & Rhoda Goldman School of Public Policy, UC Berkeley, 1998-1999.
Federal Enforcement Investigator, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Washington, D.C., 1997.
Project Lead and Coordinator, Grade the University Project, ASUC Senate, U.C. Berkeley, 1996-1997.

TEACHING

Acting Instructor, Department of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley
Fall 2007, self-initiated and designed advanced undergraduate seminar, The State and Globalization Reexamined: China, Global Power or Political Decay?
Graduate Student Instructor, Department of Political Science, U.C. Berkeley
Fall 2004, Introduction to Comparative Politics; Spring 2004, Introduction to Empirical Analysis and Quantitative Methods; Fall 2003, Political Economy of Development and Underdevelopment; Spring 2003, Politics in China, Fall 2002, Transitions to Democracy; June-July, 2002, Chinese Politics and Society (taught in different locations across China).
Graduate Student Reader, Honors Theses, U.C. Berkeley
2004, Department of History, 2001, Political Economy of Industrialized Societies (PEIS).

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND MEDIA APPEARANCES

Interview, A Bay Window Special: Taiwan: A View from Here, KQED-PBS, December 15, 1998.
Interview, Morning Edition with Mike Ryan, International Community Radio Taipei, 1998.
“Understanding History, Understanding Your Community,” seminar given at Intercollegiate Taiwanese American Student Association Conference, Stanford University, April 2004.
“Transforming Social Concerns into Grassroots Actions,” workshop given at Intercollegiate Taiwanese American Student Association Conference, Yale University, February 1999.
Articles, Editorials, Opinions, Letters to the Editor, The San Jose Mercury News, The San Francisco Chronicle, Taipei Times, The Daily California, etc., various issues.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Member, American Political Science Association (APSA)
Member, International Studies Association (ISA)
Member, Association of Asian Studies (AAS)

LANGUAGES

Mandarin-Chinese. Fluency in speaking, writing and reading (Simplified and Traditional).
Hoklo-Taiwanese. Fluency in speaking, writing and reading.
Japanese. Beginning to immediate fluency in speaking and immediate fluency in writing and reading.