

Examination Schedule – Spring 2009

May 7 – May 13

There are two Study Days this semester: Tuesday and Wednesday, 5/5 and 5/6. No classes or exams may be held on these two days. Thursday, May 7 through Wednesday May 13 are reserved for final examinations only.

Instructors are encouraged to work out individual accommodations with students who have more than 2 examinations scheduled on one day. Final examinations may not be scheduled in the last week of classes or on study days. Instructors with special scheduling circumstances should consult well in advance with their Deans.

All day classes will have final examinations, according to the schedule below, in their regular classrooms. Evening classes will have their examinations at the regular class time in the regularly scheduled rooms during the examination week.

Please see below for the common final exam schedules for COMPUTER and INFORMATION SCIENCES, MATHEMATICS, PHYSICS, and STATISTICS.

Students attending classes that meet for more than 2 hours on any given day should contact their Dean's Office to find out when, and where, their examinations will be held.
