

SUMMER LOS ANGELES INTERNSHIP AND STUDY PROGRAM

STUDENT CONTRACT

SUMMER 2007

In consideration of my acceptance into the Summer Los Angeles Internship and Study Program, I understand that the program consists of academics, internships, housing, travel (both organized and individual), and field classes. I hereby agree to live within the rules and regulations of both Temple University and Temple University's School of Communications and Theater Summer Los Angeles Internship and Study Program not only to the "letter of the law" but also with the spirit and understanding that the welfare of the community often supersedes individual preference. Further, as a Temple University student visiting the State of California, I accept the responsibilities of abiding by the laws of the State of California, as well as the rules and regulations of the Oakwood Apartment Complex.

I hereby agree to the following nontransferable contract:

1. This contract is made for the Summer Session, May 22 – July 13, 2007.
2. I am responsible for adhering to the rules and regulations as outlined in all official publications of Temple University and Temple University's School of Communications and Theater Summer Los Angeles Internship and Study Program. I understand that my failure to do so will result in disciplinary action taken against me. I further understand that the Los Angeles Program is a residential program, and therefore if, as a result of disciplinary action, I am required to leave Oakwood Apartment complex, I will also be dismissed from the program and will not be eligible for a refund of either housing or tuition charges.
3. I agree to adhere to the academic attendance policy and internship guidelines to attend required field classes and to attend required guest lectures in the Los Angeles Internship and Study Program.
4. I understand that transportation within Los Angeles, to and from my internship(s) and required field classes, is my responsibility.

The undersigned has carefully read this contract and agrees to abide by it, as well as by the applicable rules and regulations of Temple University. It is understood and agreed that the University's acceptance of this contract will obligate the undersigned to pay for the assigned college accommodations for the period covered by the contract.
