

THE FOX AND GITTIS ROOM AND ALUMNI HALL AT THE LIACOURAS CENTER

THE FOX AND GITTIS ROOM

The Fox and Gittis Room is a newly renovated multi-functional banquet room located just off of the Broad Street Lobby (Alumni Hall) at the Liacouras Center. It can accommodate meetings, banquets, or other various events anywhere from 15 to 200 people. The Fox and Gittis Room features a large built-in video screen and projector, internet access, cable television, and laptop inputs (laptop not provided) for any type of presentation that you may have. The room can also be split in half to accommodate break out meetings and smaller functions. It has hosted many events such as press conferences, seminars, charity events, health fairs, dance team tryouts, and more...

ALUMNI HALL

Alumni Hall (Broad Street Lobby) at the Liacouras Center features a large, dramatic seating environment with immediate access to Broad Street. It can accommodate up to 500 people for meetings or banquet events, depending on the configuration of the room.

RENTAL

To make arrangements for your next meeting, or to get more information, please contact us at 215-204-2400. Rental Discounts are available to Temple University Schools, Colleges, and Student Groups.