

Applying to a Temple University Summer Abroad Program

Eligibility

Eligibility for all summer programs is limited to those students who:

- possess a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale from all colleges/universities attended.
- are enrolled as full-time matriculated students at the time of application.
- intend a full-time program of study while abroad and will be applying credits earned toward a degree.
- are not on academic and/or disciplinary probation or warning.
- meet any additional program-specific eligibility requirements, if applicable; please see individual program descriptions online for more details.

Students will be selected mainly on the basis of their intellectual purpose and emotional maturity. Successful candidates are usually notified within two weeks of receiving a completed application.

Scholarships

Qualified matriculated Temple students who wish to enroll as full-time students in one of the summer study abroad programs at Temple University, Japan Campus (TUJ), may apply for scholarships of up to $2,500 for the summer. Scholarship eligibility: Applicant must be a full-time, matriculated undergraduate at Temple University; be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident; demonstrate financial need; and have completed the equivalent of four undergraduate semesters with a cumulative GPA of 3.0. Selected finalists will be interviewed.

For all other summer programs, a limited number of $500 scholarships are available to qualified Temple students. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Scholarship eligibility: Applicant must be enrolled as a full-time, matriculated student at Temple University at the time of application for a scholarship; have a 3.0 cumulative grade point average; enroll as a full-time student while abroad; demonstrate financial need; and be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Temple students who meet the eligibility requirements and are interested in applying for a scholarship should answer the relevant questions on the application and submit the scholarship essay to Education Abroad by February 15.

Application Requirements and Procedures

The application deadline for all of the summer programs is February 15. Early application is encouraged. With the exception of the Artna Excavation, applications are considered on a rolling-admissions basis. Applications for the Excavation will be reviewed after the deadline. Applications received after the deadline are considered on a space-available basis and must be accompanied by the non-refundable $200 program deposit, which will be refunded only if the applicant is not accepted into the program.

In addition to completing the application form, the following submissions are required.

Submissions for All Applicants:

- An academic recommendation, on the recommendation form supplied, from a faculty member who has recently taught you. Students applying to the Rome Graduate Seminar must provide the names and contact information of two faculty references but do not need to request a recommendation.

Additional Submissions for Non-Temple Students:

- Official transcript(s) from all colleges/universities attended to date. While we do accept summer program applications during the fall semester, acceptance to a program is provisional until grades from the fall semester are posted to the transcript and reviewed. Non-Temple students must submit an updated official transcript, with fall semester grades, to complete the review process.
- Home College/University Approval Form indicating you have received approval from your home institution to study abroad on the selected program. This form should be completed by the official responsible for approving study abroad participation. Please ask the official to return it directly to Temple University Education Abroad.
- $50 non-refundable application fee (check made payable to Temple University.)
- Signature Verification Form which enables students to submit electronic signatures within Education Abroad's online system during the pre-departure process.

Please refer to online program descriptions for any program-specific application requirements.

Certain programs require that candidates are interviewed; telephone interviews are conducted for those who cannot be interviewed personally.

Transcripts, the recommendation and the home college approval form must be received by the deadline but may be sent under separate cover. Applications are not reviewed until all supporting documents have been received.

Please send completed application form and supporting documents to:

Temple University
Education Abroad and Overseas Campuses
200 Tuttleman Learning Center
1809 N. 13th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19122

A non-refundable $200 deposit is required for all admitted students within two weeks of program acceptance in order to reserve their place. The amount is credited toward the cost of the program.
