Please note that non-Temple University students must submit an official university transcript as part of the application process. Temple University students do not have to submit an official Temple transcript.

- Check here if you would like to arrange housing through Temple.
- Check here if you are a graduate student of English at Temple and would like to be considered for a tuition fellowship.
- Check here if you are a Temple student and would like to be considered for a $500 scholarship (see eligibility requirements in the program description online). Applicants for this scholarship must submit an additional one-to-two page, typed essay answering the following question:
What are your specific goals for studying abroad on the program, and what would you do to ensure that you achieve these goals?

* Temple students must enter their Temple ID, not their social security number. Non-Temple students should enter their social security number. Temple University requests your social security number (SSN) because federal, state and local law requires the University to report the name, address and SSN for certain purposes. Temple University will not disclose your SSN without consent unless it is required to do so by law, or as permitted by the University's Social Security Usage Policy (http://policies.temple.edu/getdoc.asp?policy_no=04.75.11).

AGREEMENTS

- I authorize the Temple University International Programs staff to have access to my educational records, disciplinary records, and all information contained in those records, maintained by Temple, or any other educational institution that I have attended, and to share such records and information with the summer programs abroad director(s).
- I certify that the statements I have made on the Application Form are correct and agree to notify Temple University if I am placed on academic and/or disciplinary warning or probation at my home institution or if there is a change in circumstances which might compromise my success in studying abroad.
