

Transportation Options at Temple University

'If you live in a city, you don't need to own a car.'

- William Clay Ford Jr., Chair, Ford Motor Company Ltd.

BICYCLING Temple has 500+ bicycle racks and is installing more! The Residence Halls have bike rooms so your bike is secure whenever you're not using it!

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION SEPTA's trolleys, subways, buses, and Regional Rail make getting around Philadelphia and to the outlying suburbs easy (www.septa.org)! Check out the new trip planning tool at www.google.com/transit for up-to-the-minute directions from one location to another and back!

University Pass is a semester-based transit pass sponsored by SEPTA and Temple University which offers discounted transit passes to full time Temple students (almost 10% off!). Fall 2009 Application is due 08-27-2009. (Go to www.temple.edu/sustainability/transportation for printable application.)

CAR SHARING Car Sharing provides flexibility and freedom in an urban lifestyle. Have instant-access to a network of cars throughout the city, 24 hours-a-day, paying-per-trip, without the hassle of parking or paying for tickets, insurance, and gas.

PhillyCarShare has 5 locations near and on Main campus. For more detailed information on location, available models, and pricing visit www.Phillycarshare.org.

ZipCar currently has 3 cars available within walking distance of Main Campus. For more detailed information on locations, available models, and pricing, visit www.zipcar.com.

CAMPUS SHUTTLE SERVICES Temple University's Facilities Management coordinates Shuttle Services between all Temple University campuses, as well as running the Main Campus Owl Loop which provides door to door service from 5:30 PM to 6:00 AM.

CARPOOLING The Mobility Alternatives Program is a FREE service to commuters in Southeastern PA. Sign up for Share-A-Ride to get matched with carpools, vanpool groups, and public transit options and always have a back up with the Emergency Ride Home Program.

PARKING SERVICES

Visit the website at Temple's Office of Parking Services to learn more about the services in and around the Main, Ambler, Health Sciences and Center City campuses.
