Phi Sigma Pi	Care Package	10/22-10/23 10am-3pm Bell Tower	$383.20	A for $283.20	Can't pay for supplies	We can also pay for flyers and poster if they submit costs for both	One of the members of our organization joined the army a few years ago and has been deployed to Afghanistan. We want to send his troop as well as the other military forces in Afghanistan and Iraq care packages. We are working with the ROTC on campus to help us collect supplies. Many students and faculty at Temple have been affect by the war in some way and this is an event these people can help the war efforts. We have a 4 page list of needed supplies from toiletries to batteries and other things to keep our military's morale high. Last semester we held a similar event within our organization to send pillows and blankets that the troop was very happy to receive. We wanted to hold a campus wide event so students and faculty can participate as well.

Muslim Students Association	Health and Spirituality in Islam	10-15-2009 4:00 Anderson 8th Floor Women's Study Hall	$300.00	A			On the evening of October 15th, the MSA is inviting a professor, Dr. Sulayman Nyang, from Howard University in Washington, D.C. to give a lecture on health and spirituality. The information he will relay will be tied into Islam, the benefits from spirituality, and how using the techniques can improve one's health.

							Following the lecture, we intend to hold an enlightening discussion among the people present and the speaker, Dr. Nyang. The floor will then be open to any questions an individual has. This event will be facilitated by a moderator on the board. It is open to all students, faculty members, and anyone else interested in attending.

American Medical Student	Pumpkin Carving Contest	10-30-2009 Bell Tower 12:00-3:00	$200.00	A			The program the American Medical Student Association is hosting will be a pumpkin carving contest Friday October 30th, from 12

Association							to 3pm, located at the Bell Tower. The Contest will consist of 30 pre-registered student contestants and will be open for all students to watch the artistic carvings. Along with the pumpkin carving contest our organization will be providing hot chocolate to those watching, and selling pumpkins for Halloween with donations going to our Breast Cancer Charity in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. AMSA is asking Temple Student Government if they would be able to support this activity by covering our cost for the pumpkins. Pumpkins range in price depending on size, roughly about $0.50 per lb to $4 per pumpkin (based on quotes we have received from local vendors - private farms & stores) and we would like to allocate for approximately 50 pumpkins. We believe this event will draw the Temple community together and will be a great activity in both the spirit of Halloween as well as Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Dynasty Modeling Troupe	"Rebirth of a Dynasty" Fashion Show	10-31-2009 Mitten Hall Great Court 6:30pm	$2500.00	A			The Dynasty Halloween Fashion Show is an event that Dynasty would like to do that is geared to bring the community of Temple University together on a night that is usually deemed for mischief and because there generally aren't any University sponsored events that happen on or around halloween that everyone can benefit from. This fashion show is an alcohol free alternative for students to enjoy Halloween in the safest, most enjoyable way possible. Dynasty is trying to do more things that all of campus can benefit from and enjoy. This show will consist of straight runway, creative runway, and choreography pieces. We are collaborating with BAMN and/or Outta Control for them to perform during intermission.
