Welcome to Temple University
Transitions:

- University Seminar 1001, Fall semester
  - 1-credit course
  - Assists you in making a successful transition to the University
  - Helps you frame academic and life goals, develop successful study habits, and become an active member of the community
- University Seminar 1002, Spring semester
  - 1-credit course
  - Explore majors and career paths
  - Refine your goals and attain a greater awareness of the interconnectedness of your experiences through group discussion and reflection
In class opportunities:

- for collaborative learning
- for group work
- for meeting instructors
- for learning about Temple resources
- for learning about Philadelphia
- To meet upperclass students involved at Temple
TRANSITIONS

- General Sections
- Special Interest Sections
- Living Learning Community based Sections

Follow this link for a complete listing of all sections:
www.temple.edu/vpus/opportunities/UnivSems.htm
Experience

- Dual enrollment credits
- International Baccalaureate Credits
- Advance Placement Credits
"Must Knows"

- Using SSB
  - Adding Courses
  - Dropping Courses
- Drop Deadline:
  - Monday, September 12th
- Withdrawal Policy
  - Monday, October 31st
- Repeat Policy
People

- Provost Richard Englert
- Senior Vice Provost Peter Jones
- Deans
- Faculty
- Advisors
Learning/Academic Resources

- Degree Audit
  www.temple.edu/vpus/resources/dars.htm

- Bulletin
  www.temple.edu/bulletin/
  - 8-semester grids

- Writing Center
  www.temple.edu/writingctr/

- Math Science Resource Center
  www.temple.edu/msrc/
ENGAGE/EXPLORER

- Undergraduate Research
- General Education
- PEX -- Philadelphia Experience
Good Luck!!

T ----- Transitions
E ----- Experience
M ------ “Must Knows”
P ------ People
L ------ Learning/Academic Resources
E ------ Engage/Explore
Questions

For more information visit:

www.temple.edu/vpus