Website: Gaither Junior Fellows Program (formerly the Carnegie Junior Fellows Program)

Campus Contact: Barbara Gorka, barbara.gorka@temple.edu, 215 204 0708

Internal Deadline: November 15 annually

Award Description:

Each year the endowment offers approximately 10-12 one-year fellowships to uniquely qualified graduating seniors and individuals who have graduated during the past academic year. They are selected from a pool of nominees from close to 400 participating colleges. Carnegie junior fellows work as research assistants to the endowment's senior associates. Those who have begun graduate studies are not eligible for consideration.

Eligibility:

Applicants must be graduating seniors or students who have graduated during the last academic year. No one who has started graduate studies is eligible for consideration (except in cases where the student has completed a joint bachelor's/master's degree program).

Students should have completed a significant amount of course work related to their discipline of interest. Language and other skills may also be required for certain assignments.

Internal Application Instructions:

Each October, the Carnegie Endowment for Peace forwards application materials to institutional representatives (at Temple University, Barbara Gorka), which may then be disseminated to interested students. To apply for nomination, students must submit a draft version of the application, the Temple Nomination form, along with the required letters of nomination, by November 15th.
