Temple University Human Resources Presents:
The Annual Financial Wellness & Education Fair!

Tuesday November 12th from 11:30AM – 2PM in the Mitten Hall Great Court on Main Campus

Improve Your Financial Wellness
Are you prepared to handle debt, budgeting, retirement investing, planning for the unexpected and the financial implications of other life events? Are you sure all of your personal and financial information is secure? Join us at the fair to meet consultants and learn financial wellness advice surrounding these topics and more!

Some vendors who will be present to speak with you include: HR Benefits, TIAA, Fidelity, Liberty Mutual, Prudential, HR Payroll, Social Security, Lifeworks (EAP), Verizon, Wage Works and Computer Services.

Learn About Employee Education at Temple
Interested in furthering your education and enhancing your career opportunities? Have questions about using your tuition benefits for your partner or dependents? Join us at the fair to learn about your options for taking classes, obtaining a certificate, or pursuing a degree in over 140 areas of study through your tuition benefit! Temple University schools, colleges, and non-credit programs will be present to help you figure out what you want to study, how to apply, and what resources are available to you or your family when enrolled.

Attend the Financial Wellness & Education Fair and earn 5 credits toward your Total Wellness rewards!
