Introduction

The Temple University Fact Book and Temple University At a Glance are compiled by the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment (IRA). These documents provide a convenient and concise source of key information from the University. The facts and figures presented are intended to answer frequently requested inquiries.

IRA collects data and provides accurate and actionable information and analysis to university decision-makers, the Temple community and external stakeholders. This information is used for assessment, planning, policy formulation and mandated reporting. IRA is committed to fostering a culture of continuous improvement that advances the University's mission and strategic goals.

See appendices at the conclusion of most sections for further details and definitions. It is important to note that the information in this Fact Book may differ from data reported by IRA to federal, state and regional agencies due to differences in reporting guidelines, reporting definitions and the timing of when information was prepared.

To highlight the student experience, included are student comments from recent student surveys. These comments appear on the title pages of Sections 2 through 18.

A comprehensive document of this magnitude requires the assistance of a number of people across the University community. Many thanks to all who have contributed to the Temple At a Glance and the Temple University Fact Book.

1.5 Mission Statement

Temple University is a national center of excellence in teaching and research with an international presence. Our talented faculty and broad curriculum of over 400 academic programs provide superior educational opportunities for academically talented and highly motivated students, without regard to their residential campus community of student scholars enrich the educational and extracurricular lives of our people. While the university especially serves students from Greater Philadelphia, it is enlivened by a rapidly increasing number of students from across Pennsylvania, throughout the nation, and around the world. We maintain an international presence with campuses in Tokyo and Rome and programs in London, Beijing, and six other locations worldwide. A longtime leader in professional education, Temple prepares the largest body of practitioners in Pennsylvania; we are among the nation's largest in the combined fields of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, podiatry and law. In addition, we offer more than four dozen doctoral and more than 100 T&A degree programs that contribute to research and scholarship. Temple seeks to create new knowledge that improves the human condition and uplifts the human spirit. To achieve this goal, we maintain our commitment to recruiting, retaining, and supporting outstanding faculty who prize diversity of thought, excel in scholarly endeavors and support the aspirations of capable students.

2.7 Student Admissions Section Appendix

§ All data are as of the official fall census date. This date reflects the end of the drop/add period for course registrations. The census date for Fall 2015 was September 4, 2015 and all data is through the end of that day.

§ Acceptance Rate – The acceptance rate is calculated as the percent of students admitted divided by the total number of completed applications.

The acceptance rate for graduate admissions is the average of both Temple and Doctoral. The acceptance rate for professional admissions is the average of all professional schools.

§ Enrollment Rate – The enrollment rate is calculated as the percent of students admitted who subsequently enrolled at Temple University.

The enrollment rate for graduate admissions is the average of both Temple and Doctoral. The enrollment rate for professional admissions is the average of all professional schools.

§ Residency - When students are admitted, a residency decision is posted. Applicants with undetermined residency are classified based on their permanent address.

§ Race/Ethnicity . This is determined based on the federal coding/reporting rules, and includes all non-international students. Students self-identify, using the two-question format. Students are first asked if they are Hispanic, and those who respond yes are identified as such. Students who respond no are asked to identify themselves as one or more of the other race/ethnicities; those who mark more than one are counted in the two or more races category.

§ International Students . Students are classified as international if 1.) they complete an international application or 2.) they complete a domestic application and their nation of citizenship is other than the U.S. and their visa type indicates they are neither a U.S. citizen nor a permanent resident. The Office of International Admissions reviews and makes admissions decisions for international applicants. When students arrive on campus, the Office of International Services verifies their data and enters any missing information.

match at times, as a small number of International Students have a permanent mailing address in Pennsylvania.

§ Target Zip Codes . Includes the eight zip codes { 17017, 17020, 17021, 17022, 17023, 17024, 17025, 17026 } * 17027 } Main and Health Science campuses.

§ Temple Option - The Temple Option is an admissions path for students whose potential for academic success is not accurately captured by standardized test scores. Students who choose the Temple Option will submit self-reflective, short-answers to a few specially designed, open-ended questions instead of their SAT or ACT scores.

Undergraduate

§ Included are matriculated applicants, domestic and international applicants, and Main, Ambler, and Harrisburg Campus applicants

§ Excluded are Japan Campus applicants, Continuing Studies applicants, and Continuing Education applicants

- § Average SAT/ACT scores . Test scores are included if used in the admissions decision; method specified by IPEDS.
- § Completed Applications . An application for admission is considered complete when all required items to be considered for admission (based on application type) are submitted and considered adequate enough to evaluate and determine an admissions decision (accept, deny, etc.).
- § Enrolled Students who are currently registered for at least one credit for the upcoming semester. At enrollment, students who are registered for fewer than 12 credits are designated part-time.
- § Honors Program Admissions . Includes students admitted directly into the University Honors Program.
- § Incoming Freshmen . Students who have fewer than 15 college credits
- § Incoming Transfers . Students who have 15 or more college credits
- § Transfer GPA . The GPAs of all schools attended are listed on the report and are consistent with those used to award transfer scholarships. GPAs are recorded at the point of the admissions decision.

Graduate

- § Included are applicants to all Graduate School degree programs, domestic and international applicants, Main, Ambler, and Harrisburg Campus applicants and applications to Graduate School programs that are part of Temple dual and joint programs (e.g., JD/MBA, MPH/MSW).
- § Excluded are Japan Campus applicants, Continuing Studies applicants, Continuing Education applicants, and Doctoral . Professional Practice applicants not under the purview of the Graduate School (Law, MD, D.Pharm, DMD, Podiatry degrees).
- § Completed Applications . This includes those who submitted the minimum elements (required reference letters, transcripts, test scores, application fee, and statement of goals) necessary for an admissions decision. Requirements vary by graduate program.
- § Enrolled Students who are currently registered for at least one credit for the upcoming semester.
