

TRANSFER RECOMMENDATION FORM

If you are studying in a U.S. educational institution, you must have your SEVIS record transferred from your current school to Temple University. Please submit this transfer recommendation form to your current International Student Adviser.

This form should only be completed if you know you are accepted to Temple University. Upon your request, your current school will update your record in SEVIS and indicate that you intend to transfer to Temple University. Your International Student Advisor will also indicate the release date of your SEVIS record. Your current school will retain control over your record in SEVIS until you complete the current term or reach the release date. At your request, the international office of the current school may cancel the transfer request at any time prior to the release date.

You must complete this process and receive the new Form I-20 from Temple University within 15 days of the first day of your first semester at Temple University.
