Important Buildings:

- 44. 1700 North Broad Street is home to the International Students and Scholars Services (ISSS – room 203B) and the Intensive English Language Program (IELP – room 211).
- 16. Conwell/Carnell Hall is where the Admissions, Registrar’s Office, and Bursar’s offices are located. Students who pay their bill by cash, credit card, money order or traveler’s check will need to visit the Bursars office to pay their bill. Postdoctoral Fellows and Visiting Research Scholars can find the Postdoctoral Fellows Office on the 5th Floor in the Graduate School.
- 50A. Howard Gittis Student Center/Bookstore is a central building to student life on campus. Students with questions about Temple can go to the information desk. It is a popular lunch spot which has many different kinds of food. Downstairs is the bookstore, Parking Services, Post Office/UPS, and banking services. Many fun events are held at the Student Center!
- 66. The Welcome Center/TECH Center is a new building which houses over 700 computers for student/scholar use! Visit the Help Desk (room 106) on the first floor for problems accessing Temple computer programs such as e-mail (TUMail), TUPortal, or Blackboard. The Help Desk can help configure laptops or wifi devices to use Temple’s wifi network. The Teaching and Learning Center (TLC) provides teaching assistance for faculty and the Instructional Support Center (ISC) provides classroom technological assistance for faculty.
- 36. Paley Library houses 3 million books on 28 miles of shelving—a quiet place to study or to use computers.
- 40. Ritter Complex is where important meetings are held in either Walk Auditorium Ritter Hall or KIVA Auditorium Ritter Annex.
- 45A. The Diamond Dollars Office is where students receive their Temple ID cards (OWLcards). Students who lose their ID will have to come to this office and pay a replacement fee to receive a new card.
- 19. 1810 Liacouras Walk, 4th Floor—Student and Employee Health Services
- 31B. Independence Blue Cross Recreation Center—Fitness Center, Racquetball Courts, Basketballs Courts
