Board of Directors, Temple University Health System, Inc.

17. Report

The Report of the Board of Directors of the Temple University Health System, Inc., as given in Agenda Reference 17, was received.

In addition to the written Report, Mr. Howard Gittis informed the Board that each element of the Health System is under adequate safeguards and controls, and each is operating on a profitable basis on an overall system perspective.

Mr. Gittis informed the Board that Goldman Sachs has been engaged to develop an overall financing program which is to begin in February 1997. He believes that the result of such a program will be that, over the next 2-2½ year period and after all of the capital expenditures and construction of the new Temple University Children’s Hospital (TUCH), the cash position of the Health System will be better than it is today.

Mr. Gittis said that there is outstanding management throughout the Health System, and he believes we will be able to continue to manage the Health System so that it is not a burden on the University as a whole.
