PRESIDENT'S REPORT - Peter J. Liacouras

Before the President began his report, Trustee Diaz asked for an update on the search for a Provost. President Liacouras reported that six candidates will be coming to campus from October 21, 1999, through December 1, 1999. He explained that the search was delayed until the faculty and students returned to campus in September. The Search Committee is on track and is chaired by Vice President Richard M. Englert. The President said that the timetable is such that we would expect that sometime in mid-December, he will have a response on this subject.

11. Report

The Report of the Board of Directors of Temple University Health System, Inc. was received as given in Agenda Reference 11.

Trustee Gittis asked that consideration of the Temple University Health System, Inc., Final Budget for 1999-2000 be deferred and asked for a special resolution authorizing the Health System to continue to spend funds.

Trustee Katz asked how a deficit on the hospital side is funded. Trustee Gittis said it is funded by State aid and reserves that we have. He said that the Health System is now running a number of entities and has over a $600 million budget. The Health System is the low cost provider in this area and provides the highest quality care. Our difficulty is that, in the present year, we have about $72 million in unreimbursed or underreimbursed care. Philadelphia is the only city that does not have a municipal hospital and, in the absence of one, provides no aid.

On motion duly made and seconded, the Board of Trustees voted to authorize the officers of Temple University Health System, Inc., (TUHS) and its subsidiaries to continue spending at the levels approved in the 1998-1999 TUHS Budget until the Final TUHS Budget for 1999-2000 is received and approved.

NEW BUSINESS

31. Amendment to Basic Tax Sheltered Annuity Plan of Temple University and the Retirement Savings Plan for Employees of Temple University

On motion duly made and seconded, the Board of Trustees approved the amendments to the Basic Tax-Sheltered Annuity Plan of Temple University and the Retirement Savings Plan for Employees of Temple University, as was set forth in the Resolution distributed as Agenda Reference 31, and authorized the officers to take all necessary and appropriate actions to accomplish the foregoing.

32. Authorization to Establish a For-Profit Educational Subsidiary

President Liacouras explained that this is a proposal to create an on-line, for-profit institution wholly owned by Temple University, but without the authority to confer Temple University degrees.

The President said that this is simply Temple University preparing to move into a new marketplace. It is not to be confused with Temple University creating on-line courses, a College of General Studies, or “on-line” instruction as one of a variety of instructional modes in the University. "Virtual Temple" is another, independent, mobile actor that would compete, cooperate, affiliate, etc. with other on-line entities—including those that the University itself cannot compete with. What we are talking about here is an additional entity—a flexible vehicle—aimed at regional and world markets, not through the traditional in-person delivery of our inherited teaching skills, but on-line. The precise products would be determined by Virtual Temple based on market demand and Virtual Temple's quality controls. Virtual Temple would be an independent corporation operating independently of the University, on a day-to-day basis.

The Temple University Board of Trustees would appoint the directors of this new corporation. Temple University would be the sole shareholder. The Virtual Temple Board would have an advisory committee of academics, business and marketing folks. A CEO would promptly be appointed with a small staff. There will be some money from The Plan to Renew, Phase II.

“Necessary and appropriate steps” includes the intention of the officers to consult with faculty and other internal actors and external experts.

Trustee Rosen said that, under Trustee Polett, the Strategic Planning Committee has been working with the President and others. Before this becomes reality, we will be back to the Board for approval with a little more flesh on the bones.

On motion duly made and seconded, the Board of Trustees, upon the recommendation of the Strategic Planning Committee (9/28/99), authorized the officers to take all necessary and appropriate steps to establish a for-profit educational subsidiary corporation to facilitate the development, marketing, gathering capital and delivery of on-line and technology-mediated distance education programs in regional and global markets.

ADJOURNMENT

On motion duly made and seconded, the meeting of the Board of Trustees adjourned at 4:25 P.M.
